Feeling stressed? Burnt out? Or just kinda “meh”?

We get it — Ain Shams can be A LOT sometimes.

We're a group of students (just like you) trying to understand what everyone is going through so we can push for better mental-health support on campus.

It's not a test. It's not official paperwork.

It's literally just you telling us how you're doing in just two minutes — honestly.

Your voice matters more than you think.

Hope to see you around campus soon!

رجاله زي الف والله واتبسط جدا معاهم

I really appreciated the opportunity to discuss my well-being today. The conversation was constructive and supportive, and I left feeling valued and more positive.

عظمه يا بويها

thank you for the instant help!

They actually made me stop and think about how I'm feeling instead of ignoring it.The questions were simple and direct, which made it easier to talk.They listened without judging or giving useless advice.The conversation made me more aware of what I need to fix or pay attention to.Make the conversation shorter and more focused.Ask fewer generic questions and more specific ones.

Thank you

Happy to share in the relieving activity!

Very helpful but hope you can add more companies

This is a very helpful site, thanks for your efforts and keep going.

Really really like how you categorized the majors for every company and explained what you will actually learn in it amazing job , i just would like to note that some links didn't open at least for me, and we would benefit all greatly if you add to the page new specific training opportunities when the companies are hiring or looking for trainees

ممكن لو عدد الشركات تزيد علشان الفرص تبقى اكتر
